 I would have really loved to attend! This resonates with me! Unfortunately, I'll be working at that time. I'm thinking of paying to get the recording. I'm not sure if that would be beneficial.

- Dane Maxwell
 Yes it would be beneficial Bradley, you'll still get the value with the recording.

 Will you teach actionable steps to get paying customers? Getting sales seems to be the hardest part, especially with no mailing list, no social media platform, no network of contacts, etc.

 I would have for sure signed up for this. Exactly what I was looking for. Unfortunately I have 2 meetings next Wed morning that I can't miss. Please be sure to let me know if you do another one or happen to reschedule. All the best, Jim

 If I can not attend live, I can get the recording later as I understand, great! What about bonuses that you mention? Will I be able to get them as well? Thank you in advance!

 Hi Dane! How about offering something like done for you or done with you rather than a recorded workshop for serious individuals who want to get it done and don't mind sharing the equity. Connecting with developers for building the software, marketers for running the ads, sales and support people, etc., ? Looking forward hearing from you.
